

Ohio

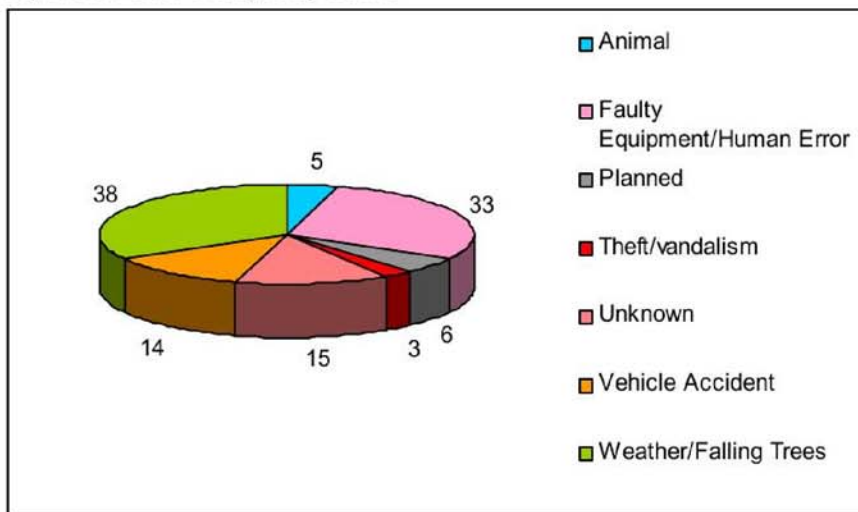

Outage Summary

Total number of people affected by outages	832,595
Total duration of outages	42,641 minutes (nearly 30 days)
Total number of outages	114
Average number of people affected per outage	12,809
Average duration of outage	790 minutes (over 13 hours)

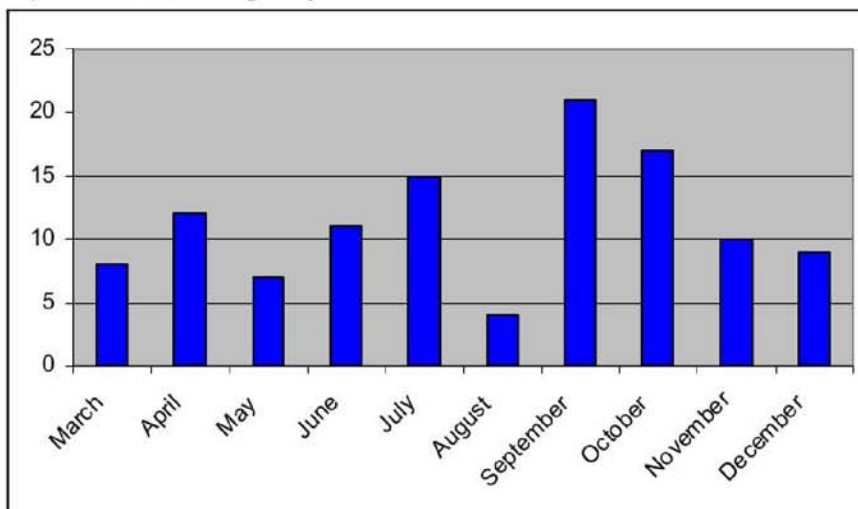

Note: Total number of people affected (and average) based on 65 (57%) of the total reported outages. Total duration of outages (and average) based on 54 (47%) of the total reported outages.

Outage fact: On September 16th, remnants from Hurricane Ike caused power outages affecting 520,000 people in the Cincinnati area.

Reported Power Outages by Cause

Reported Power Outages by Month

Note: Months with no reported outages were not included. Data collection began February 16th.